NEW ARMY BILL IS ACCEPTED BY SENATE

Senator Fall Says U. S. Will Be Forced to Fight Foreign Foes in Mexico

Washington, May 17.—The Senate, after an all day debate, agreed to-night to the conference report on the army reorganization bill without roll call. The House is expected to approve the report within a day or so and send the first of the big national defense measures to the President.

The bill provided for a regular army of 211,000 officers and men at peace strength and approximately 260,000 at war strength, and for a federalized national guard of 457,000 officers and men at maximum strength.

Debate Covers Wide Range.
Discussion of the conference report embraced a denunciation of Great Britain for execution of the Irish revolutionists, attacks upon the administration's Mexican policy, renewed assaults upon the national guard as a political force, and vigorous criticism of the provision for a government nitrate manufacturing plant.

Senator Fall asserted that General Pershing, with the 14,000 troops at his command, could march onto Mexico City, taking every town with little trouble if he were unhampered by orders from Washington and that 90 per cent of the Mexican people would welcome such action. He declared also that representatives of General Carranza were negotiating with foreign governments against the United States and that this government would be forced to fight foreign forces on Mexican soil if it did not soon do its full duty to the people of Mexico and the United States.

Borah Attacks National Guard
Senator Borah of Idaho, renewing

his attack on the national guard as a political force, declared that it would prove to be more detrimental to the United States than an invading army. He arraigned Great Britain for the Irish executions, declaring there had been no greater blow to free institutions since the European war began.

Senator Lodge and Chairman Stone of the foreign relations committee also criticized the army bill, the former blaming the House for not accepting a larger regular army proposed by the Senate, and the latter maintaining that the proposed army was too great. Senator Stone said he was so anxious to see the nitrate provision enacted that he would almost be willing to agree to any size army necessary, but insisted there was no need of an increased army.

Considers Large Army Unnecessary.
"I see no need now, or at any time in our history for a large army," he said. "The enlargement provided would entail a grave and useless burden. The only use for an army is to attack an enemy or defend our own soil. There isn't a senator nor a member of the House, or a man in any of the executive departments of the government, who will say we are in danger of assault on land by an invading army or any country upon earth."

Senator Brandegee, author of the amendment for a regular standing army of 250,000 men at peace strength, which was rejected by the conference, declared that the English language was inadequate to express his disgust at the conference action and said he hoped the good Lord who guards the drunkard and the fool will save the nation.

Secretary Baker said that as soon as President Wilson has signed the bill he will begin consultations with the general staff to put the measure into effect.

Mrs. Ephraim Lundberg, says every letter she receives from her husband who is on a mission in Sweden is opened by the English government and the most of them are stopped entirely. She also says that he receives but a few of the letters she writes to him.

Mrs. E. D. McCombs spent last Sunday in Smithfield. Her daughter, Pearl went on to Weston for an extended visit.

Prof. Karl Wood gave the Parents class a very interesting talk on activity last Sunday.

Garfield Bastow was the speaker at the Sunday evening meeting. His subject was, "What he saw and did while on his mission in Samoa, describing the methods employed by our Elders in order to gain the confidence and good will of the natives."

The following program was presented:

GIVE "SYRUP OF FIGS" TO CONSTIPATED CHILD

Delicious "Fruit Laxative" can't harm tender little stomach, liver and bowels.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing at once. When peevish, cross, listless, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has sore throat, diarrhea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs." and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups.

presented at the welcome home party given to Garfield Bastow on Tuesday evening. Song by Young Ladies Chorus; Bishop Olson then gave an address of welcome in a pleasing and jovial manner. Elder Bastow in reply said the occasion made him realize what it meant to be at home once more after a three years absence among strangers. Next came two catchy songs by the boy scouts, followed by a clarinet solo by Karl Wood. Elder Bastow then rendered two songs in the Samoan language. The time until nearly 12 o'clock was spent in dancing. The scout orchestra of seven pieces, furnished the music.

Miss Sarah Bastow of the Utah-Idaho hospital force; Miss Uralia Cutler of Logan; Miss Sarah Kohley of College ward, and H. H. Allen of Bonida, Idaho, were the visitors present.

GRADUATING EXERCISES AT CLARKSTON

Clarkston, May 17.—The eighth grade graduating exercises, was held on Sunday, May 14, with Principal R. E. Shumway conducting. We had with us Prof. Anderson of North Cache High School, also Prof. C. I. Stoddard. The class consisted of fifteen, six boys and nine girls. The house was well filled with people. It was beautifully decorated with all kinds of flowers and was a pretty sight to behold. The exercises consisted of music and singing as follows:

Opening Song—By Nine Girls.
Invocation—James B. Jardine.
Duet—Jeanie Dable and Leora Hurt.
Reading—Ida Crockett.
Class Prophecy—Larce Parson.
Solo—Prof. Stoddard.
Valedictory—Ruth Christensen.
Class Song—
Solo—Sarah Clark, accompanied by Miss Jennie Clark.
Prof. Anderson then addressed the graduates.

Miss Fauntella Godfrey furnished the music for the songs.
Prof. Stoddard furnished two more musical numbers.

Following are the names of the graduates:

Ruth Christensen, Larce Parson, Fauntella Godfrey, Sarah Clark, Leora Hurt, Ida Crockett, Cassie Atkinson, Jeanie Dable, Sadie Butters, James Jardine, Marvin Godfrey, Lee Thompson, Harold Clark, Owen Archibald and Wallace Stewart.

Presentation of Certificates—Bishop John Ravston.
Mother's Day was observed both in our Sunday School also in the sacrament meeting. In the Sunday School a nice program was rendered, the mothers taking the leading parts in all of the exercises. Prayer was offered by Pres. Sarah Shumway of the Relief Society; Mrs. Kate Griffin led in the concert recitation. Sarah H. Clark, president of the Primary, spoke to the children on Mother's Day; Annie Griffith recited a poem, "My Dear Mother"; song, "Scatter Sunshine by a class of little girls; closing hymn, "Oh My Father." Benediction was pronounced by Ellen B. Godfrey.

There was a good attendance at the afternoon meeting. Good speaking and singing, all of which was in memory of Mother's Day, and was enjoyed by all.

Bishop John Ravston went to Teton, Idaho, to attend the funeral services of William Stewart who died at Logan on Saturday last, he was born and reared here until about two years ago.

SHALL THE COW BE GIVEN A REST?

In all the large well handled dairy herds of America and among the good herdsmen the question of, Shall the cow be given a rest, is never considered other than that she shall.

The idea that we have had in the Western country that when a cow is dry she needs very little to eat, is wrong and the sooner we get away from this condition and practice the better off we will become and the greater production we will get from our dairy cows. To produce milk is just as much a tax on the system of the dairy cow as hard work is on the average draft horse, and for that reason it requires considerable energy and nutrients to keep up the body. It has been proved beyond question that cows when dry for a month to six weeks are much better producers than if milked up to within two weeks, or a few days of their calving time.

The only chance the herdsmen has to get ahead of the cow in feed is when she is not producing milk regularly. At this time there is a good opportunity to build up the body of the animal, and if she is anything like the right kind she immediately returns the stored up material in her milk as soon as she freshens. Cows that are milked right up to calving invariably will have a normal calf in every way, but the detriment comes to the mother rather than to the calf. The cow that is not given a rest before calving has a milk flow that is at a much lower level than the cow that is given a rest, and she never reaches the maximum production throughout that period that she otherwise would. She merely dwindles along giving half her usual amount of milk and never reaches the same flow that she did in her other lactation periods.

SUCCESSFUL SALESMEN MUST LOOK HEALTHY

In the June American Magazine a successful salesman says:
"A salesman should look healthy. I formed a theory on that point a long while ago, and have proved it since then more than a thousand times. At first I didn't know exactly why it was, but now I think I have succeeded in figuring out the psychology of the thing."

"In the first place the best selling point for an article is to get it associated in the mind of the customer with success. Everything, even remotely connected with the article, that suggests success is a point that weighs in favor of the sale. If the salesman looks prosperous, the customer unconsciously or subconsciously receives the impression that this prosperity grew out of the excellence of the article he is selling."

"The salesman should carry into a store an impression of success, prosperity, and harmony. He should look as if things are breaking well for him, as the saying is. Now the idea of complete harmony cannot be conveyed, as I look at it, without health."

in his address to the graduates. He cautioned them to beware of the parting of the ways and for them to be very careful and select the proper path in life.

The following is a list of pupils who have perfect records for the past year: Lorin Reese, first grade; Philip Hendricks, third grade; Sidney Biggs, third grade; Orrel Kingsford, fifth grade; Grant Allen, fifth grade; Orilla Kingsford, fifth grade; Marion Allen, eighth grade; Lavorn Buckley, eighth grade.

This indicates a great deal of interest and effort both on the part of the parents and pupils.

AT FOALING TIME

During a colt's birth no one should pull promiscuously on the feet or the head, unless they are presented together. Normal presentations are, the head and front feet, or the two hind feet first. Any deviation from this is abnormal and usually causes trouble.

Where presentation of the colt is not normal, conditions should be rectified or a competent veterinarian put on the case at once; otherwise delay or incompetent help may cause the death of the fetus, or the mother or both.

Any operation of this kind should be handled with the greatest antiseptic precautions so as not to carry infection into the genital organs.

Plenty of clean warm water and a mild antiseptic should be used in caring for the mare and the foal at this time.

Beware of allowing every one to try to rectify an abnormal presentation.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running ear or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

What Are YOU Worth From the NECK UP?

It is estimated that the average man is worth $2 a day from the neck down—what is he worth from the neck up?
That depends entirely upon training. If you are trained so that you plan and direct work you are worth ten times as much as the man who can work only under orders.
The International Correspondence Schools go to the man who is struggling along on small pay and say to him, "We will train you for promotion right where you are, or we will qualify you to take up a more congenial line of work at a much higher salary."
Every month several hundred students voluntarily report advancement as the direct result of I. C. S. training. You need not leave your present work, or your own home. This is your chance at once and mail it.
